Snow or no snow, the snowman dances in the Winter

For some it is a torment (frost, warm clothes, short days), but a lot of people enjoy the snow, ice-skating rings are open, the lights are bright at evening time and afterwards you can sit by the fireplace. The winter period is also a great time for many companies and the organization of special winter Events, think of Event managers organizing ice skating competitions or winter fairs. To help those people with the promotion of their events, this special Skydancer in snowman outfit can be used very well. A great addition to your collection!

3 or 6 meters high? Within 5 minutes he is there!

Whether you add the snowman of 3 or 6 meters to your collection: within 5 minutes your customer will have this special Skydancer at their doorstep. Especially with the help of the supplied manual. As a standard we also supply a transport bag and lighting in the package. The blower can be ordered at JB as well
